

Unfortunately, the provided text appears to be a mix of Romanian and nonsensical words. However, I'll try to break it down and translate the parts that make sense: - "pentru ca" = "because" - "o doua dynarul" = "a few dollars" or "a second dollar" (Dynar is a unit of currency that was never actually used, but it was a concept proposed by Robert Zubrin in 2000) - "Pevina" = unclear, possibly a personal name or a surname - "Asta a fost dintr-un vlog" = "This was from a vlog" (vlog = video blog) The rest of the text appears to be a repetition of the phrase "Asta a fost dintr-un vlog" which translates to "This was from a vlog." It's possible that this is a quote or a phrase taken from a video blog, but without more context, it's difficult to provide a more accurate translation.
